

What's Haute: A Los Angeles Guide To New York City

BY LAURA SCHREFFLER | WHAT'S HAUTE | NOVEMBER 10, 2015

Each year, millions of Angelenos trek nearly 3,000 miles across the city to experience the hustle and bustle of New York City. Without a doubt, Manhattan is exciting. In addition to being one of the most cosmopolitan cities in the world, it's also an epicenter for luxury, culture and entertainment. Here, Haute Living breaks down the best way to take a bite out of the Big Apple during a long weekend away in The City That Never Sleeps.

TRAVEL

[...]

RELAX & REFRESH

Sally Hershberger Downtown

There are numerous options for ultimate relaxation on your trip to the Big Apple, but we've curated a list of our favorites. Definitely indulge in a hammam visit at The Spa at Trump SoHo, which is the only luxury day spa in New York City that incorporates the indulgent, Middle Eastern bathing tradition. Conversely, to turn back the clock in a non-invasive way, book yourself the NYC SoHo Alternative to Injectable facial, which dramatically reduces expression lines and wrinkles with Inhibit, the first anti-wrinkle treatment formulated with Natura Bisse's Octamioxyl and a lipofiller complex to fill existing lines. You also can't miss the wow-factor treatments and facials from Susan Ciminelli, a world-renowned, holistic beauty guru and healer known for her reflexology work. Finally, there's no better place to get beautified than at Sally Hershberger's Meatpacking District salon. If you can't get Sally, herself (this celebrity stylist has been in hot demand for decades), one of her fantastic team members will easily be able to provide the cut, treatment or style of your dreams.

The Spa at Trump SoHo, 246 Spring St., 212-842-5505

*Sally Hershberger New York, 425 W. 14th
St. #3F, 212-206-8700*

*Susan Ciminelli Beauty Clinic, 118 E. 57th
St., Third Floor, 212-750-4441*