Having healthy, radiant, and glowing skin is very popular right now. There are so many beauty products that will help give you a glow. From highlighters to bronzers to liquid drops, the options are abundant. One essential step to having radiant skin is to start with your skincare routine. Using the right skincare products is the foundation for beautiful skin.

GETTING RADIANT SKIN

Susan Ciminelli has wonderful skincare products that can help you have radiant skin. Susan has over forty years of experience in beauty and holistic health. Her products have been worn by Jennifer Lopez, Naomi Campbell, Cindy Crawford, and the list goes on. Susan uses ingredients that are pure and natural for the skin including natural vitamins, seaweed extracts, sea water, and essential oils.

USING SUSAN CIMINELLI SKINCARE PRODUCTS

I tried the Algae Deep Cleanse, the Bamboo Ginger Scrub, and Power C Moisturizer. When I applied the Algae Deep Cleanse, I felt a little tingle, but it left my skin feeling clean. Next, I tried the Bamboo Ginger Scrub. I love a good facial scrub that is not abrasive. This product was very gentle. My skin felt very smooth after using it. The Power C Moisturizer was my favorite. It is not watery nor too thick, but just the right consistency. The Power C Moisturizer is light and was perfect for my oily skin. After applying the moisturizer, my skin felt wonderful. I really love that each ingredient in Susan's products has a special purpose to help give you radiant skin.

If you are looking to not only have radiant skin, but also add a touch of glow to your skincare routine without the makeup products, Susan also has a 1-2-3 Glow Kit that takes less than 30 minutes to use in the privacy of your own home.

As we get ready for the holiday season, we want to look our best. Why not give the gift of radiant skincare to that special lady in your life? Susan's skincare products are quick and simple to use. They make your skin feel wonderful, fresh, and hydrated. Her products do not contain any harmful ingredients. The Marine Lotion, Seawater, Cleansing Milk and Cleansing Gel comes in travel sizes that meet the air travel requirements, making it convenient to use while traveling this holiday season or anytime at all.
