The Skin Checklist

- ✓ EXFOLIATE FIRST! To help prolong that sun-kissed look, deflake dead skin with a gentle exfoliator (no harsh scrubs) before natural or sunless tanning. "New skin tans more evenly," says New York City facialist Susan Ciminelli, who keeps J. Lo glowing.
- ✓ MAKE SKIN GLEAM Spray a light oil (Naomi Watts is a fan of Kai, above) onto shins and shoulders. Oil reflects light, which makes skin look more tan. Let oil absorb before dressing.

- ✓ HYDRATE SKIN "Apply moisturizer over damp skin to seal in moisture," explains Ciminelli. Twice a week, treat yourself to a hydrating face mask (like Susan Ciminelli Hydrating Gel Mask, $75; susanciminelli.com).
- ✓ GET RID OF TAN LINES After moisturizing, apply a self-tanner (light to medium shades, not dark) to strap marks. "Err on the lighter side," advises celebrity makeup artist Kristofer Buckle, who works with Mariah Carey. "You can always reapply."
