Did you know, there is a wide variety of American made beauty products available? This is one category where we have plenty of options. I will NOT compromise on using beauty products and cosmetics marked "Made in USA" and I'll tell you why...

These are products we use on our bodies, daily, often even in our eyes or around our mouths. They can be pricey or make big promises based on specialized ingredients. You want to be confident that you are getting a pure product with the best possible results. PLEASE, insist on only American made brands for your face and body. But I've got good news and bad news...

The good news is that even with the "Made in USA" filter, you still have a dizzying array of US made options at all price points. The bad news is that you'll still have to figure out which American made beauty products are right for you. That's where I can help. I am a licensed esthetician, I am vigilant about checking ingredients, and I LOVE reviewing beauty products.

On USA Love List we pride ourselves in only featuring stuff we love of the best quality. While I have loved something about every single thing I listed this year, these are my absolute favorite beauty products of 2015. In a sea of beauty samples, these stood out and made me love them.
