Our source guide for Made in USA beauty products includes ONLY brands that are exclusively American Made. In order to provide a go-to, comprehensive list of sources for made in USA makeup, skin care, nails, sunscreen, and more, the criteria needed to be simple. Every bath, beauty and cosmetic product these companies make is done right here.

- ★ Often our source guides list specific Made in USA products from companies that might also have some other items made overseas, and we try to keep you informed about that. We promote those American made products in support of the local economy and their efforts in domestic manufacturing. In the beauty sector, however, there are so many outstanding American made beauty brands and it is extra important to be able to trust the ingredients you are using on your body.
