Her Point Of View: Claudia Schwarze

Happiness is a choice not a destination.

I WANT TO BE CLAUDIA FOR A DAY OR MAYBE A YEAR.

Claudia is the general manager of the Aman Venice hotel in the Palazzo Papadopoli in Venice.

Claudia is not only gorgeous but also warm, friendly and has that wonderful ability to make you feel relaxed and at home immediately. She has a wonderful eye for detail, which is evident as soon as you meet her and even though we are new friends, I feel as if we have known each other for the longest time.

Do you have a beauty secret to share?

Susan Ciminelli products: Susan is a facialist from New York who comes to Venice as visiting practitioner. Her products are natural and give you the most amazing glow for which she is famous.

What's on the bucket list?

Jackson Hole Wyoming as it is so different from my life here in Venice; the mountains and outdoor life, wildlife, cowboys and skiing.

If you could change one thing in the past, what would you do differently?

Stayed a kid longer.
